

Liza Lim & Speak Percussion: Atlas of the Sky Sounds Unheard - Crowd Recruitment Information

Project Information

Atlas of the Sky is a new work of dramatic and ritualistic power by Liza Lim - acclaimed composer and winner of the 2018 Australia Council Don Banks Music Award. The work is scored for solo soprano and three percussion soloists juxtaposed against the driving rhythms, swarming percussion and vocal sounds from a crowd of performers. Atlas of the Sky tells stories about the stars, the power of crowds, and changing constellations of memory.

World Premiere - 7.30pm, Monday the 18th June 2018 - Melbourne Recital Centre

The Crowd

The crowd will consist of a community of trained and untrained volunteer musicians plus young people from Speak Percussion's Sounds Unheard education program, who will create large-scale patterns that counterpoint the turbulent rhythms of our contemporary world.

The crowd will be required to perform on small percussion instruments and to sing/recite in sections of the work. They will be an on-stage presence for the majority of the hour-long piece and will need to be capable of standing and moving for the duration of the performance. During rehearsal periods the crowd will be coached by Liza Lim, Speak Percussion and movement director Jo Lloyd.
