

SPEAK PERCUSSION SOUNDS UNHEARD

2020 School Holiday Intensive

September 21-25, 2020

11am-1pm

Online activity (Zoom)

FREE

This September, Sounds Unheard is taking its annual School Holiday Intensive online with a brand new program focused on creativity, composition, improvisation and more. Participants will receive creative prompts from leading Australian and international artists in the fields of new and experimental music, and will work with Speak Percussion to create, record and film their musical responses in their own homes. This program is ideal for students interested in innovation, imagination and thinking outside the box.

Participants will be guided through every part of the creative process and will work both individually and in small groups to brainstorm, experiment, record and share their unique creations. All sessions will be held over Zoom, allowing students from across metropolitan and regional Victoria to participate.

Guest artists:

Claire Chase (flute, US)
Cathy Milliken (composer, GER)
Jon Rose (violin, AU)
Bonnie Whiting (percussion, US)

Sage Pbbbt (vocals, AU)
Mohamed Camera (percussion, AU)
Callum G'Froerer (trumpet, AU)
Megan Clune (composer, AU)

Schedule: September 21-25

Each morning participants will be emailed a link containing their creative prompt, background notes and tips on creative approaches to music-making. From 11am-1pm Speak Percussion artists will be available on Zoom to workshop and discuss ideas, provide advice and guide participants through the creative process.

Students will record their musical responses at home on their personal device and submit to Sounds Unheard, where their contributions will be curated, combined and remixed for online presentation.

Please note that participants will require access to a device to attend the Zoom meetings and record their responses (audio and/or video).
